SEC. 3. On vote of the Post adjourned meetings may be held, which shall be opened in like manner as stated and special meetings, after which the order of business shall be resumed at the point at which it was left off at the time of recess.

SEC. 4. A short recess may be declared by the Commander at his discretion.

ARTICLE III.—Officers and their Duties.

ARTICLE IV.—Committees and their Duties.

SECTION 1. The Commander, immediately after his installation, shall appoint the following Standing Committees: A Relief Committee consisting of three members, a Finance Committee of three members, an Entertainment Committee of five members, and a Delinquent Committee of five members; which Committees shall act until the next regular election of officers: Provided, That should a member of either neglect his duties the Commander may report the facts to the Post, when, if no satisfactory excuse be given, he may declare the delinquent's position vacant, and appoint another comrade to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 2.—Relief Committee. It shall be the duty of the Relief Committee to visit all comrades who may be reported sick or in distress within twenty-four hours after such notification, continuing such visits as often as may be found necessary, and if found worthy, and the Committee is satisfied that such comrade is in good standing in the Post, it may, during the recess of the Post, order an appropriation not exceeding three dollars per week for the relief of any one comrade: Provided, Said order be approved by the Post Commander before being paid. The Committee shall report its action in writing at the succeeding regular meeting, and it shall also perform such other duties as may be appropriate or that may be imposed on it by the Post. SEC. 5.—Delinquent Committee. It shall be the duty of this Committee to look after such members of the Post as may be in arrears for dues, and call their attention to the matter and urge them to place themselves in good standing; also to urge those who may have been dropped to reinstate themselves in the Post.

ARTICLE VIII.—Deaths and Funerals.

SECTION 1. Upon the Commander having been informed of the death of a comrade he will at once ascertain if it will be agreeable to the family of the deceased to have military ceremonies at the funeral, and if such consent be given he will convene the Post for that purpose at the proper time. Comrades will assemble, in uniform if possible, punctually at the hour named by the Commander.

SEC. 2. Upon the death of a comrade in good standing the Commander may authorize the expenditure of a sum not exceeding thirty dollars towards defraying the expenses of the funeral, should the necessities of the case demand.

ARTICLE IX.—Rules of Order.

With such changes in phraseology as will make them apply to a Post this Post shall be governed by the Rules of Order of the National Encampment as promulgated in the Rules and Regulations. In cases not provided for in said Rules of Order this Post shall be governed by the rules laid down in Robert's Manual.

ARTICLE X.—General Instructions.

SECTION 1. Officers of the Post must memorize the ritual thoroughly, so far as it relates, at least, to the office they may fill. The Vice Commander should be familiar with the Commander's duties.

SEC. 2. The Commander is wholly responsible for the discipline of the Post when in session or parade. Should a comrade so conduct himself as to bring discredit upon the Post, the Commander is authorized to cause him to be removed from the Post-room or the line, as the case may be.

ARTICLE XI.—Amendments.

No part of these By-Laws shall be repealed, amended, altered, or suspended, nor shall any new by-law be adopted unless by a proposal in writing stating the alteration or addition to be made, and to be presented to the Post at least two stated meetings prior to its discussion; when, if two-thirds of the comrades present and voting vote in favor of such proposition, it shall be adopted; but any part of these By-Laws may be suspended for the evening by unanimous consent.
